Dear Mr. Whyrick,

With compliance to the Federal Election Commission letter dated July 18th and our conversation of August 7th about Amended Year End Report (7/01-12/31/01), dated 3/11/02 and April Quarterly Report (1/1/02-3/31/02)- my response with amendments is are postmarked as of August 7th. This letter and amendments are provided as $50,000 threshold for 2002 election cycle has not been achieved; therefore, I am not required to electronic filing mandate.

The loan of $23,320 is one and the same for the Amended Year End Report (7/01-12/31/01), dated 3/11/02 and April Quarterly Report (1/1/02-3/31/02) with loans incurred on the following dates: July 3, 1999 ($1400); July 16, 1999 ($1400); May 2, 2, 2000 ($7000); June 3, 2000 ($11952.00). All the loans were secured and renegotiated with 0 interest and due date of December 31, 2004.

As stated in my previous July 1st letter, -I inquired with the FEC concerning loan rollover for 2002 election cycle. In so many words, I was advised that the 2000 election contributions and debts should have been zero out as of 1/1/2001. Therefore with this information, I believe that the 2002 loans guaranteed by candidate (debt) should reflect the balance of the original loan amount (outstanding loan) for 2002 election cycle and the $23,320 would be the new loan similar to mortgage refinancing and saving certificate maturing with a new conversion date.

I am suggesting that loans guaranteed by the candidate should be a separate form Schedule C(A) and filed Loans Guaranteed by Candidate/Repayment of Personal Funds and Original Amount of Loan and Terms have multiple entries and not one.

Your time and cooperation is greatly appreciated

Sincerely,
